4. Games

4.1 Skilled Gaming for Prizes

Each member acknowledges that the outcome of the matches and tournaments offered on the Site are directly related to the number of members participating, and the skill levels of each member participating. iBUYPOWER does not comment or have knowledge of the probability of one member winning a match vs. another member, and makes no representations about an individual member's chances of winning.

Prizes are generally cash amounts, which are paid to you through electronic third party payment processors. The prizes offered in all tournaments will be disclosed at the beginning of such tournaments. If a tournament has to close prematurely, such as for maintenance or technical problems, the Site may attempt to reschedule, or process refunds if applicable.

4.2 Determination of Winners

The results and winners of each tournament offered on the Site will be determined by iBUYPOWER, and such determinations are final. By signing up, joining and/or participating in any tournament, you agree to be bound by these determinations.

4.3 Game Play

The Site is not responsible for technical, hardware or software malfunctions, lost or unavailable network connections, disconnects from your game play on your platform, or any incorrect or inaccurate results that may be posted on your online game. You may not: (a) gain unauthorized access to the Site's systems or any account (other than your own), interfere with the communications, procedures or performance of the Site or deliberately damage or undermine the Site; (b) affect the outcome of your online game play on your platform by means of or with the assistance of macros, bots, automated programs, screen analysis utilities, player collusion, to otherwise commit fraud in relation to the Site; or (c) alter the human skill component of any game played on your platform. Any attempt to do so is a violation of both civil and criminal laws and will result not only in the termination of your user account and forfeiture of all winnings, bonuses and incentives to which you would otherwise be entitled, but potentially lead to civil and/or criminal prosecution. The Site, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to terminate any person's account who is suspected of tampering with their game results for the tournament entered, or who otherwise violates these rules and to seek legal enforcement to the greatest extent possible, including referral to criminal prosecution authorities.

Disputes:

First time offenders deemed to have knowingly violated the T&Cs may receive an initial warning along with a minimum penalty of a ninety (90) day account suspension or permanent suspension. Repeat offenders will be deemed to be intentionally violating the T&Cs and will face a minimum six (6) month suspension for a second violation and permanent suspension for a third violation or permanent suspension overall.

Any dispute filed without evidence will be considered invalid.

Match Result Disputes: Any and all match evidence must be sent to our support team within twenty (20) minutes of the scheduled match start time. Site administrators will then review and examine match evidence and will be solely responsible in assigning the win to the appropriate user and/or team(s) as soon as possible. Any dispute that is filed without evidence will be considered invalid. If only one party submits evidence during this twenty (20) minute time frame the user that provides the evidence will be deemed the winner of the match, while the opposing user will receive a loss. If no evidence has been reported by either party within the twenty (20) minute time frame the match will be cancelled, marked as incomplete, or accepted as complete with prior submitted results. Once a match has been cancelled, marked incomplete, or marked complete the results are irreversible and cannot be adjusted. iBUYPOWER has the sole discretion to ask users to provide additional evidence in order to determine the accurate winner. After twenty four (24) hours all match results will be final with no undoing, cancelling, or re-assigning winners.

Unresolved matches: If a winner cannot be established from an investigation by the iBUYPOWER Community team then the match will be cancelled.

Claiming a false win: If a user claims a “win” in a match that was either not played, or not completed, or drawn, or lost, an automatic forfeit and suspension will be issued, following on the suspension guideline listed above.

Submitting false evidence: If a user submits “false evidence”; evidence that has previously been submitted or archived from a previous match, evidence that has been altered in any way, or false evidence that has been created, then that user will automatically forfeit the match and immediately face a suspension, based on the suspension guideline listed above.

Abusive behaviour on platform: Any abusive, obscene, lewd, threatening or insulting behaviour by a user towards iBUYPOWER Community staff or other players on the iBUYPOWER Site will result in their immediate suspension for an indefinite period of time as determined by iBUYPOWER Community staff. Sending multiple tickets associated with the same issue will result in disciplinary action following the suspension guideline.

Cheating: Any users who are caught cheating/boosting their statistics in any match on iBUYPOWER will be suspended, based on the suspension guideline listed above. If cheating or boosting of records occurs during any bracket, leaderboard, or other style tournament, the user will be immediately disqualified with no entry fee reimbursement.

Lagging and IP Booting: Users who are caught lagging/IP booting matches will face an automatic loss and suspension. The suspension penalty will follow the suspension guideline listed above. When disputing a lagging match, video evidence of the lag is required in order for your dispute to be validated. You must be able to provide video evidence that clearly identifies the exit of the match. When playing a match with a poor connectivity level, be sure to quit before either you or your opponent gain a significant advantage in the match. When a user disconnects from a match while their opponent has a significant advantage, the user who disconnected will receive an automatic loss. If the match is played and completed in its entirety, the results of the match will stand. The iBUYPOWER Community team has the sole discretion to adjust end match results at any time.

5. Financial

5.1 Entry Fees and Prizes

If and/or when a member participates in a pay-to-enter game or tournament (a "Cash Game"), any entry fees for such Cash Games paid by the member represent a “Platform Fee” to iBUYPOWER made solely for facilities provided by the Site for the setting up and management of all Cash Games. By participating in a Cash Game and paying this fee to iBUYPOWER, each member acknowledges that these funds are held by iBUYPOWER for such Services and that the member grants an irrevocable authority to iBUYPOWER to pay the winner of the Cash Game the prize associated with such Cash Game.

Should an entry fee apply, Members should also be aware that the total entry fees paid by members in any given Cash Game are not paid out as prizes, as iBUYPOWER retains part of the entry fees paid as a service fee on all Cash Games played. This fee allows for the continued operation and maintenance of the Site and the development of additional features and content for the Site in the future. The cash prizes in each tournament represent an amount determined by iBUYPOWER in its absolute discretion and is subject to change without further notice to you.
